

BURSARIES

The Society is accepting applications for bursaries for the 3rd ISPMF Conference and annual meeting in Helsinki. Awards will only be made to members who are giving an oral or poster presentation and priority will be given to students and post-docs.

Awards will be for £170 (~€200) for European members, and £340 (~€400) for members from other continents. Application forms can be found on the Download section of the Society website:
